

Have You Weak Lungs?

If you have, don't wait until the trouble becomes so aggravated that nothing can help you, when you may so easily learn what may be of immediate and permanent benefit to you, or any of your friends having pulmonary trouble—through reading a splendid paper on "The Consumptive's Clime," published in Demorest's Family Magazine for May. This article is handsomely illustrated with numerous views of health resorts and other beautiful places in Colorado, and will interest every robust person, as well as those seeking a congenial clime.

An illustrated paper on "The Grape-Fruit" is also seasonable, furnishing valuable information regarding this—to many—unfamiliar fruit, especially about its beneficial qualities in the spring. "In Persia's Palaces," with its many illustrations, gives a comprehensive idea of woman's life in that Eastern clime; "Next Summer's Garden" is just in time to be of practical use; there is a Decoration Day story, "The Voodoo Charm," and a Decoration Day poem, "Our Truce," beautifully illustrated, besides other stories; "Chat" tells about the latest fads, from "Home Art" you can learn "How to Frame Pictures" yourself, and all the other departments are running over with seasonable matter; and, besides three full-page pictures, there are nearly 200 illustrations. Indeed, every member of the family is sure to find something of personal interest in every number of Demorest's Family Magazine, and it is published for only $2 a year, by W. Jennings Demorest, 15 E. 14th St., New York.

New Books.

The Old Harbor Town. By Augusta Campbell Watson.

The scene of this story is laid in New London, Conn., during the early struggles of our country for independence. The main characteristics of the book are its delicate quaintness and simplicity, interwoven with a dash of history to explain the motives of the different personages. It is filled with expressions of loyalty and patriotism, and its two principal characters, Letty Chester and Love Mainwaring, like two heroic women of those times, pass through scenes of war and sadness to the peace and rest of happy homes. It is a pure and healthful story, filled with a sustained interest which carries the reader onward to the last page without weariness, and leaves a pleasant memory in its wake. The book is tastefully designed, and contains a frontispiece of a portion of New London Harbor.

"The Old Harbor Town." Paper covers, 50 cts. Published by G. W. Dillingham, New York.
